Is there a memory, person or story of courage and sacrifice you would like to share through your donation to The Royal British Legion?

Your memories are important to the nation's history. The Legion intends to create a permanent display, recording the thoughts of people who have left donations in their Wills, so that we remember more of those who served our country. If you would like to make a dedication, please do so here:

MY DEDICATION

If you need more space please write on a separate sheet and attach it to this form.

Dedications Received:

"To keep faith with the men I trained, for the wonderful men and women I met whose faces and names are etched in my memory and to help the less fortunate who have suffered since World War Two." Anon

"My late husband was in the Forces during 1939-45. I know that leaving a donation in his Will to the Legion was what he would have wanted." Mrs R M

"As a retired solicitor I have drafted many Wills giving legacies to the Legion. I share the feelings of those who made these legacies and feel this is one way we can help the great work done by the Legion" Mr M W
