

OUR CARE

At Halsey House, we pride ourselves on delivering a person-centred model of care. Each resident, regardless of the complexity of their needs, is cared for as a unique individual by our trained staff. We treat everyone with respect, dignity and freedom of choice, in a safe, well-equipped environment which feels like home.

Each resident has a care plan specific to their needs, as well as a named nurse and/or keyworker. A nurse visits Monday to Friday, and we ensure residents can attend hospital, GP, dental and optician appointments. We also have a visiting chiropodist, physiotherapist and occupational therapist.

In our specialist dementia wing, Danbury Lodge, we care for 16 residents living with dementia using the Butterfly Household Model of care. The wing won the Excellence in Delivering Dementia Care award at the Norfolk Care Awards 2016.

OUR ACTIVITIES

Quality of life is important to us and we offer a variety of social events and outings in our two minibuses. We encourage our residents to go shopping, pursue hobbies and attend clubs.

We also make sure there's plenty to do for residents, including indoor bowls, bingo, tea dances and crafts. On Sunday afternoons a visiting chaplain holds a religious service in our main lounge. We also have a visiting hairdresser and barber.

In the dining room, we offer a varied menu to suit all tastes as well as special diets. In addition, there is a licensed bar where residents can socialise with family and friends. A variety of lounges are available, offering a comfortable and homely atmosphere.

WHO CAN STAY?

The Royal British Legion has six care homes which provide short and long-term care for serving and ex-Service people and their dependants. Situating around the country, they offer a wide range of services including four with specialist dementia care.

Each home is registered with the Care Quality Commission, and has a Statement of Purpose and Resident Guide (available on request) which clearly define the care and services provided.

Our care home communities include men and women of varied ages and abilities. Our homes are exclusive to ex-Service people and their dependants, so there is always a special camaraderie.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

HALSEY HOUSE

The care and facilities at Halsey House make it an ideal home for ex-Service men and women, and their dependants.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

WE ARE THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Legion is at the heart of a national network that supports our Armed Forces community through thick and thin – ensuring their unique contribution is never forgotten. We've been here since 1921 and we'll be here as long they need us.

We are the country's largest Armed Forces charity, with 235,000 members, 110,000 volunteers and a network of partners and charities that help us give support wherever and whenever it's needed.

We support serving members of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines, British Army, Royal Air Force, Reservists, veterans and their families.

We help veterans young and old transition into civilian life, helping with employment, financial issues, respite and recovery, through to lifelong care and independent living.

From sports and arts-based rehabilitation courses to tailored personal support – we're by veterans' sides, every step of the way. Every year we take thousands of families on breaks, so they can spend some much-needed quality time together.

We also support older veterans with home adaptations, nursing services and through six dedicated care homes, run just for ex-Service men and women and their dependants.

ABOUT HALSEY HOUSE

Coming to live at Halsey House is a new chapter in your life, a new address full of possibilities. You'll share a common bond with our other residents, who each have their own story to tell. We hope it will feel like a home from home, where you decide how you want to spend your day.

We have 87 beds, and provide nursing, residential and personal care, as well as specialist dementia care. We also provide day care, five days per week, within our dedicated day care unit.

Our highly trained and skilled staff team put our residents at the core of everything we do. We aim to make a positive difference to your life, in a friendly, caring and warm environment.

OUR LOCATION

We are situated in the popular seaside resort of Cromer on the beautiful north Norfolk coast. Our elegant old building is a great welcome for residents and guests alike.

Cromer is famous for its Victorian pier, which is one of the only piers in the country to still host its own theatre show every summer and winter season.

We also arrange minibus and coach trips to local attractions, including local theatre productions, Lowestoft Air Show, and the shops of Cromer and Norwich.
